~ ~ Welcome to the Hotel Strasburg ~ ~

The Hotel Strasburg originally built as a private hospital in 1902, became well-known for lodging & dining in the Shenandoah Valley in the early Twentieth Century. Restored to Victorian elegance in 1987, it's guest register reflects a truly cosmopolitan parade of visitors from across the nation and around the world.

Keeping with local hospitality, the Hotel keeps the unoccupied hotel room open for patrons who are curious to view the furnishings & appointments.

We are devoted to being an exemplary host. We expect our freshly-prepared food to be served with the courtesy & attention that you, our honored guests, deserve. Any suggestions that you believe will help us hold to that high standard will be greatly appreciated & gratefully accepted.

Thank you for your patronage & we hope you will visit with us again soon.
